

Request for curriculum comparison

Before submitting your application please read PEP Specialist Application Handbook.

Assessors will review your specialist colleges' curriculum against the 2022 RACGP curriculum and syllabus for Australian general practice.

To have your curriculum assessed, you must provide the following:

An official copy of your training institution/Medical Board training curriculum.

An official letter from your training organisation confirming:

- this is their curriculum;
- the year of the curriculum;
- the specialist general practice qualification it leads to; and
- the year you obtained this qualification.

If any of these documents are not in English, you must provide a copy of the original and an official English translation.

To support your curriculum comparison application, please also provide an official document from the college, training organisation or Medical Board that outlines their good medical practice guidelines and ethics.
