

WBA competency

6.2 Professionalism – Learning and professional development

Assessment criteria

1. Shows a commitment to professional development through reflection on performance and the identification of personal learning needs.
2. Attends and participates in all learning and assessment activities of an educational program.
3. Personally participates in audits and quality improvement activities and uses these to evaluate and suggest improvements in personal and practice performance.*

Performance lists

Significant margin for improvement	Progressing towards the standard expected			At the standard expected
Select if consistently performing at this level and there are significant concerns	Select if occasionally performs at the level designated “progressing”	Select if consistently performing at this level	Select if sometimes performs at the level of early Fellowship but this is not yet consistent	Select if consistently performing at early Fellowship level – the expected standard for this assessment
Lacks engagement in the task and provides inadequate answers		Engages in the task to some degree and provides adequate answers		Engages in the task and provides comprehensive and thoughtful answers
Answers indicate extremely limited ability to reflect on personal skills and learning		Answers indicate some ability to reflect on personal skills and learning		Answers indicate excellent ability to reflect on personal skills and learning
Does not complete activities required in the learning program or completes some but to a poor standard		Completes some of the activities required in the learning program to an acceptable standard		Completes all activities required in the learning program to a high standard
No audit activity is completed despite opportunity to do so		Audit activity is completed to an adequate standard where there is an opportunity to do so		Actively seeks opportunities to complete an audit activity and does so to a high standard

*Note: Not all learning unit assessment tasks involve an audit activity