

RACGP Assessments and Examinations Special Arrangements

Medical Certificate

Instructions to candidates

If you are applying for special arrangements in an RACGP Assessment or Examination on medical grounds, your application must be accompanied by an appropriate medical certificate. This medical certificate can only be completed and signed by your treating health practitioner who can verify your medical condition. The treating health practitioner must be registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA).

Before completing this form, please read the Assessments Special Arrangements Policy.

1. Please have this form completed by the relevant treating medical practitioner involved in the care of your ongoing circumstances.
2. All relevant sections of this form must be complete for your application to be considered. An incomplete form may result in your application being rejected.

Policy compliance declaration

I have read, understood and agreed to comply with all RACGP policies, and in particular,
i. Assessments Special Arrangements Policy
ii. RACGP Assessments and Examinations Candidate Handbook

I understand that the submission of plagiarised, false or misleading information will be handled as per the Academic Misconduct Policy.

I understand that the failure to disclose any restrictions on, or changes to, my medical registration to the RACGP will be handled as per the Academic Misconduct Policy.

By signing this document, I declare that all the information supplied is complete, true and correct. All documents submitted become the property of the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP). I give permission for the RACGP to contact my treating medical practitioner to verify the information on this form if needed.

Instructions to health practitioners

The information you provide will be used to support the Candidate's request for special arrangements in an RACGP Assessment or Examination on medical grounds. The purpose of granting special arrangements is to accommodate a Candidate who is likely to be disadvantaged by a circumstance which is beyond the Candidate's control, and which is objectively likely to have an adverse impact on the Candidate's attendance at, or performance in, an RACGP Assessment or Examination.

By completing this form, you are verifying that all of the following circumstances apply:

the Candidate is experiencing ongoing health or other circumstances beyond their control

these circumstances are objectively likely to have an adverse impact on the Candidate's attendance at, or performance in an RACGP Assessment or Examination

RACGP staff may contact you to verify the authenticity of this document

you are qualified to authenticate the circumstances for which the Candidate is applying

you are not a family member, close associate or colleague of the Candidate, or a candidate in the same assessment or examination

you are currently registered with AHPRA.
