

2021

Name	RTO	University	Project Title
Yvonne Gia Yen An	GP Synergy	Western Sydney University	Uptake of advanced care planning in Western Sydney among the Vietnamese-speaking community.
Abira Chandrakumar	GPEX	University of Adelaide	Exploring General Practitioners' (GPs') views on barriers to cervical screening tests in women from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds in Australia; a qualitative study
Elizabeth Dai	EVGPT	The University of Melbourne	Pivoting to Perpetrators: an evaluation of an online educational module for GPs on identifying and responding to perpetrators of intimate partner and family violence
Laura Elsom	GP Synergy	Western Sydney University	Hepatitis C treatment in general practice: educational and support needs of GPs and GP registrars
Katie Fisher	GP Synergy	University of Newcastle	The prevalence and associations of telehealth consultations and other aspects of GP registrars' billing practice: a cross-sectional study nested within the Registrar Clinical Encounters in Training (ReCEnT) study
Darran (Zhiyong) Foo	GP Synergy	University of Wollongong	The impact of rurality on the Primary Care Interval for (the pathway to treatment of) Breast Cancer
Wissam Ghamrawi	GPEX	Flinders University	Communicating Medical Information with Aboriginal Patients: Lessons Learned from Health Professionals in Aboriginal Primary Health Care
Brian Gue	GPEX	University of Adelaide	Supporting GPs in their approach to patients who are victims of Domestic Violence: establishing an evidence-based referral pathway
Isabel Hanson	GP Synergy	University of Sydney	Social Prescribing in General Practice: a qualitative analysis of GP knowledge and behaviours in the Sydney Local Health District
Takehiro Ichikawa	JCU	James Cook University	GP registrar's perspective and understanding on chronic pain management

Habiba Jahan	GPEX	University of Adelaide	General Practice management of depression after Incident Coronary heart disease: A quantitative analysis of data from MedicinesInsight in the Australian population
Chang-June (Jun) Jung	MCCC	The University of Melbourne	A 2019 Chlamydia study in urban and regional areas of general practice in Victoria, Australia: analysis of testing, diagnosis, treatment and re-testing rates.
Louisa Ling	GP Synergy	University of Notre Dame	Understanding the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on the management of asthma in general practice from the perspective of the general practitioner
Olivia Missiakos	GP Synergy	Western Sydney University	Increasing willingness to engage in prevention and screening for cervical cancer in women from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds living in Western Sydney (NSW).
Seren Ovington	GP Synergy	Australian National University	The Impact of the COVID 19 Pandemic on General Practitioners: A Qualitative Study
Tasuba Pervez	GP Synergy	Western Sydney University	What is high quality paediatric care in general practice and how is this achieved? Perspectives of parents, paediatricians and general practitioners.
Bryan Tan	WAGPET	University of Western Australia	Wellbeing and Mental Health of Australian Indigenous youth: a qualitative study on the engagement and perspectives of Australian Indigenous youth on their own mental health`
Isaac Tranter	GPTQ	The University of Queensland	Patient perceptions of doctors accessing digital information during general practice consultations.
Brent Venning	MCCC	The University of Melbourne	A discrete choice experiment: Patient preferences and willingness-to-pay for genomic testing and polygenic risk assessment in primary care
Isabella White	GPEX	University of Adelaide	Training Program Experiences of South Australian General Practice Registrars during the COVID-19 Pandemic