The Organisation

The Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP) is Australia’s largest professional membership body for general practitioners (GPs). We represent over 39,000 members including urban and rural GPs, medical students and registrars.

The RACGP’s mission is to support GPs in improving the health and wellbeing of all Australians, “Healthy Profession. Healthy Australia.” We provide skills and knowledge assessment, educational training and ongoing professional development for practicing GPs. We develop standards, resources and guidelines, help GPs with issues that affect their practice, support research to link members with the latest advancements in the field and advocate on behalf of the general practice profession to set and maintain standards of high quality health care for Australians.

Our Values

RACGP Staff are expected to uphold our workplace values:

- Progressive leadership Forward thinking and proactive leaders who lead by example and empower staff to create and drive innovation

- Quality Honouring our Organisational Vision and Mission Statement by constantly striving for excellence in service delivery and advancement in the field

- Ethics Committed to acting with morality, integrity and transparency in serving the best interests of all stakeholders

- Professionalism Dedicated professionals who respect and collaborate with others and are fully accountable for their actions.

- arrange peer review of manuscripts
- make impartial editorial decisions on the appropriateness of manuscripts for publication, considering the paper’s importance, originality, clarity and relevance to general practice
- identify authors, contributors and peer reviewers
- plan issues and commission articles, series and other medical content as appropriate
- correspond with authors and reviewers in a timely, professional manner
- participate in planning the yearly themes and focus articles
- attend quarterly Editorial Board meetings (via teleconference)- optional
- contribute to the ongoing quality improvement of the journal

Ensure adherence to the peer review process

- with the support of the Medical Editors and/or Editorial Advisor communicate peer reviewer comments to authors in a constructive manner
- provide appropriate feedback to reviewers
- use reviewer comments to guide editorial decisions
- assist with the maintenance of the author and reviewer database.

Writing, editing and developing content

With the support of the Medical Editors and/or Editorial Advisor:

- medically edit, fact check and proofread manuscripts to ensure medical accuracy, clarity and appropriateness for general practice
- write editorials, clinical challenges and other material for AJGP as required.

Ensure conformance to high editorial and ethical standards

With the support of the Medical Editors and/or Editorial Advisor, participate in the process by which all medical material:

- is correctly attributed, acknowledged, headed, described, captioned, labelled and illustrated
- is used with permission and complies with copyright legislation
- does not plagiarise another author’s work
- is not being, or has not been, published elsewhere
- is appropriately referenced to the available evidence
- conforms, wherever relevant, to the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE) ‘Uniform requirements for manuscripts’, Committee on Publications Ethics (COPE) guidelines and relevant Australian legislation and regulations.
