

Domain 1: Communication skills and the patient-doctor relationship

Learning outcomes

- Communicate with patients, relatives and carers effectively and appropriately in the context of palliative care
- Effectively communicate within a multidisciplinary team to provide high-quality, holistic palliative care

Reflection

Domain 2: Applied professional knowledge and skills

Learning outcomes

- Use a holistic approach to palliative care assessment and planning
- Appropriately use a range of palliative therapies
- Appropriately use a range of management strategies
- Work effectively as part of a multidisciplinary team in the provision of safe palliative healthcare to patients with a terminal illness

Reflection

Unit 3: Population health and the context of general practice

Learning outcomes

- Advocate for appropriate, timely and best-practice palliative care services for the community
- Provide direction and leadership to address palliative care needs in the community

Reflection

Unit 4: Professional and ethical role

Learning outcomes

- Work within all relevant professional and ethical guidelines when providing palliative care
- Apply self-reflection in improving clinical care
- Apply strategies for managing the personal challenges of dealing with death and grief on a daily basis
- Demonstrate a commitment to continuing self-directed learning and professional development sufficient to provide quality care

Reflection

Unit 5: Organisational and legal dimensions

Learning outcomes

- Work within relevant organisational, statutory and regulatory requirements and guidelines associated with end-of-life care
- Monitor and improve the delivery of palliative care

Reflection