NSW&ACT General Practitioner of the Year Award 2020

Nomination form

About the award

The General Practitioner of the Year (nominee) may be nominated by a member of the medical profession, a member of the general public, a member of a regional training provider or division of general practice etc.

A winner will be chosen from each state, and one national winner will be chosen from amongst the state finalists.

This award will be judged on the following criteria:

- understanding and commitment to general practice
- service to the public
- involvement in training and continuing professional development.

Important note: General practitioners who have been awarded the RACGP General Practitioner of the Year Award in the past, cannot be considered for this award again until a period of 10 years has elapsed.

Nominations must be received by Friday 14 August 2020, 5.00 pm AEST

For details and criteria on this and other RACGP awards, please refer to the relevant terms of reference available on the RACGP website at www.racgp.org.au/the-racgp/governance/organisational-policies (Awards of the Board) and racgpawards.org.au.
