

Applications must be received by 5.00 pm (AEST) 18 May 2018

Entries are invited for the RACGP Rural Medical Student Bursary award, offered to a medical student who is a member of a rural health students' club at an Australian university.

Entrants are encouraged to complete this application form, write an essay (maximum 1200 words) on the topic: Rural general practice is in a state of change, how would you ensure its place as the centre of health care for rural communities? and send both the completed application form and essay to awards@racgp.org.au.

The essay will be judged on the perceived understanding of rural general practice and evidence of innovative thinking.

The prize

The Medical Student Bursary award includes:

- registration to attend the College's annual conference, GP18, being held at the Gold Coast Convention and Exhibition Centre, 11-13 October 2018
- return economy flight to Gold Coast for the recipient
- accommodation (including breakfast) for 2 nights
- an invitation to attend the National Faculties social event
- an invitation to the RACGP Rural Annual Member meeting, where a trophy and certificate will be presented by the Chair of RACGP Rural.

If you have any queries please contact the RACGP Rural team on 1800 636 764, or email rural@racgp.org.au.

Application submission

- Email completed form and essay to awards@racgp.org.au
- Applications must be received by 5.00 pm (AEST) 18 May 2018.

Application form

Name

Street address

Suburb

State

Postcode

Telephone

Fax number

Mobile number

Email

Name of rural health club

Name of university