

GPs across Australia are calling on the next Australian Government to:

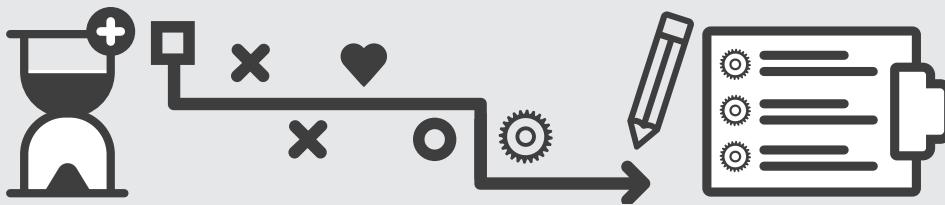

Modernise medicine

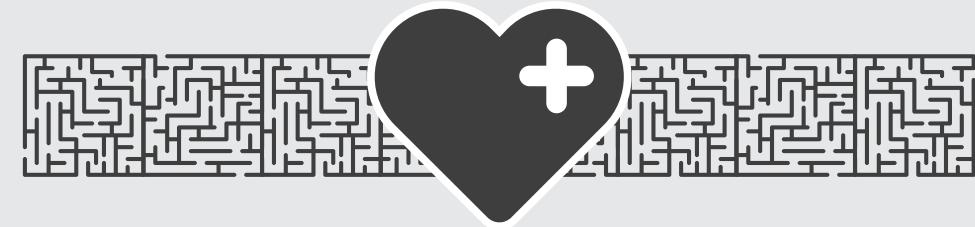

Address rising patient out of pocket costs

Support mental health

Recognise complex care

Ask your local candidate what they are doing to prioritise the health of all Australians