

All applications for special consideration must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. When applying for special consideration for medical reasons applicants must supply a medical certificate detailing the medical issue, its duration and effect on the applicant, and any recommendations for special arrangements. The medical practitioner supplying the certificate must not be a relative and must have a proper, professional doctor-patient relationship with the applicant. In other circumstances, a statutory declaration must be provided detailing the reason for the special consideration application. If you are applying for special consideration for special arrangements in an examination, please detail the arrangements you are requesting.

Declaration:

- I certify that the information I have provided in and with this application is correct and complete.
- I have read the RACGP Examinations Special Consideration Policy and the Educational Misconduct Policy.
- I understand that providing false or misleading information will be handled in accordance with the Educational Misconduct Policy.
- I hereby authorise the RACGP to contact professional authorities and any party named in support of my application for special consideration for the purpose of verifying any information I have supplied.

Signature

Date

The RACGP's Privacy Policy reflects the recent changes in Federal and State privacy legislation and is available at www.racgp.org.au

Applications must be submitted via email to examinations@racgp.org.au with the following subject line:
Application for special consideration — Applicant's surname — Applicant's RACGP ID

Applications without supporting documentation or which are not submitted according to these guidelines will not be considered.