This Thursday Evening Mini Series is specifically designed to assist RACGP Fellowship candidates with their preparation for the clinical component of the RACGP exam this November.

Program outline

There are 9 sessions in total, the first three are in lecture format and the remaining six consist of small group work, all in preparation for the OSCE examination.

Throughout the course of the small group work sessions you will have the opportunity to practice your consultation skills while gaining feedback from RACGP examiners along the way.

Register for all sessions in advance and save $60

Sessions are facilitated by Dr Lou Gallo (RACGP QA Examiner) and Dr Mark Lee (RACGP QA Examiner).
