Dear member

Invitation to attend the 64th Annual General Meeting

On behalf of the 63rd Board of the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners Ltd (RACGP), I am pleased to invite you to attend the 64th Annual General Meeting (AGM).

The AGM will be held via Zoom webinar on Wednesday 17 November 2021 at 7.30 pm (AEDT). To register to attend the AGM, please visit the RACGP AGM webpage at www.racgp.org.au/agm and click 'register'.

The Notice of AGM, inclusive of agenda, is enclosed. The Notice of AGM includes the Resolutions that are being put to members for voting and accompanying explanatory materials to assist you in your voting considerations. There will be five Ordinary Resolutions and one Special Resolution to vote on, including a critically important resolution about the future of general practice training. We encourage all members to read and consider these Resolutions.

Additional AGM material, including the Annual report and Statutory report, and other relevant AGM documents, are available on the RACGP AGM webpage.

If you would prefer to allocate your vote to me (in my role as RACGP Chair), you can do so by selecting this option in the ballot link that will be sent to you. If you would like to appoint a proxy, instructions and the proxy form are available on the RACGP AGM webpage.

Voting will be open from Wednesday 3 November 2021, and eligible voting members will receive an email from OGL, RACGP's Returning Officer, prior to the opening of the ballot, with further details on how to vote before or at the AGM, as well as a voting link.

This year, you have the opportunity to submit questions in the lead-up to the AGM, as well as on the night. Questions will be grouped into themes, which will be answered by the relevant Board director. Please visit the RACGP AGM webpage for more information and to submit questions.

If you are receiving this information by post, it is because you have not provided your email address to the RACGP. To vote or view the Annexure to the Notice of AGM, we ask that you either update your details and provide an email address, or login to the RACGP AGM webpage.

To update your contact details, please contact us on 1800 472 247 or email agm@racgp.org.au.
