

Dr. Lorin Monck

MBBS (Hons), BMedSc (Hons), FRACGP, DCH, MFM

Professional Profile

Currently Senior Medical Officer with extensive experience in general practice, remote healthcare, Aboriginal community health, and medical education. Skilled in providing comprehensive and culturally safe care to underserved populations, with a deep understanding of chronic disease, emergency medicine, and rural health systems.

Previous clinical and supervisory roles, include leadership roles with the Royal Flying Doctor Service, Bega Garnbirringu Health Services, and as a Senior Lecturer in general practice. Passionate about mentoring, clinical teaching, and improving health equity in Aboriginal communities through evidence-based, patient-centred care.

Current Appointments

Senior Medical Officer

Bega Garnbirringu Health Services – Aboriginal Community-Controlled Health Organisation

- Leading the clinical delivery of comprehensive primary care services in an Aboriginal health setting
- Managing acute, chronic, and preventive care needs of Aboriginal patients
- Supervising GP registrars, junior doctors, and supporting staff development
- Collaborating with Aboriginal Health Workers, nurses, and allied health professionals

Royal Flying Doctor Service (Western Operations) Casual General Practitioner

Providing locum primary health services in remote communities

- Handling emergency presentations, chronic disease management, and care coordination
- Supporting retrieval logistics and telehealth consultations

Current AGPT GP Supervisor (since 2011),

Current FSP GP Supervisor (since 2023)

Supervision & Medical Education

GP Supervisor – Bega Garberringu Health Services

- Supervision of GP registrars in a community-controlled Aboriginal health setting
- Facilitating cultural education, clinical training, and patient-centred approaches

GP Supervisor – WAGPET

- Provided supervision and mentorship to GP registrars in regional WA for 15 years
- Delivered structured feedback, exam preparation, and performance assessment
- Promoted evidence-based practice and reflective clinical learning

Senior Lecturer – General Practice 2011-2021

Rural Clinical School

University of Western Australia / University of Notre Dame (Fremantle)

- Designed and delivered clinical education for medical students
- Participated in curriculum development and student evaluation
- Focused on rural health, Aboriginal health, and professional identity formation

Vocational GP Training – UK 1993-1994

- Completed structured GP training under senior supervision
 - Participated in Balint groups and video-based consultation feedback
 - Developed strong skills in consultation, ethics, and professional development
-

Education & Qualifications

Undergraduate and Postgraduate Qualifications:

Master in Family Medicine (Monash University) 2003

Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) 1986

University of Sydney – Honours Class II

Bachelor of Medical Science (Biochemistry) 1983

University of Sydney – Honours Diploma in Child Health (DCH) 1993

Diploma in Child Health (DCH) 1993

College of Physicians, UK

Awarded Royal Fellowship – Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (FRACGP) 1997

Postgraduate Clinical Experience

Senior Medical Officer – Royal Flying Doctor Service (WA) 1996 -2007

- Led outreach clinics in Aboriginal communities
- Supervised visiting medical staff and junior doctors
- Completed EMST and APLS training to manage critical care in remote settings

General Practice Vocational Training – UK

- Formal vocational training in general practice with in-depth supervision
- Gained diverse experience across internal medicine, paediatrics, and primary care

Senior House Officer – Glan Clwyd Hospital, Wales

- ENT Surgery (6 months), General Anaesthetics (18 months), Paediatrics (12 months)

Resident Medical Officer & Internship – St. George Hospital, Sydney

- Comprehensive clinical rotations across medical and surgical disciplines
-

Professional Development & Certifications

- ALS Provider – Reviewed May 2024
 - Advanced Life Support Course – 2020
 - REACT Emergency Course – previous course completion 2018
 - REACT COURSE - 2022
 - EMST (Emergency Management of Severe Trauma) -1998
 - APLS (Advanced Paediatric Life Support), last course achieved 2004
-

Conference Presentations

“Improving the Screening Process of Streptococcal A Infections in a Health Clinic”

ACCHWA Conference – July 2025

- Presented outcomes from a community-based quality improvement project
- Focused on infection control and early intervention strategies in Aboriginal

“Introduction of Iron Infusions in an Aboriginal Health Clinic”

Aboriginal Health Conference August 2023

Presentation on implementation of a clinical procedure into a health clinic

Current Memberships & Affiliations

- Fellow, Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP)
 - Member, WAGPET Supervisor Faculty (former)
 - RACGP Faculty member
-