

Thursday 13 November 2025 (Pre-conference day)

Time (AEST)	Activity
8.00 am	Pre-conference workshops (booking required)
	Paediatrics masterclass for general practice 8.30 am – 4.30 pm	Dermatology in general practice workshop 8.00 am – 2.30 pm Optional tour, 2.45–4.30pm	Aspiring practice owners masterclass 12.00–4.00pm	Developing and ensuring contemporary and quality FRACGP exams workshop 9.00 am – 4.30 pm	Empowering women in rural general practice: leadership, advocacy and mentoring 9.00 am – 4.30 pm
3.00 pm	RACGP Convocation
4.30 pm	RACGP Annual General Meeting

Friday 14 November 2025 (Conference day 1)

Time (AEST)	Activity
7.00 am	Registration open
7.30 am	Smoking ceremony (outdoors)
7.30 am	Welcome breakfast in the exhibition hall
8.30 am	Conference opening

9.00 am	Ministerial Address, Minister for Health and Aging
9.30 am	Keynote Presentation 1: Leigh Sales AM
10.30 am	Morning tea in the exhibition hall
11.15 am	Concurrent sessions
	Title: GP leadership - the journey from caring clinician to powerful systems leader	Title: Emerging technologies – AI and Innovation	Title: What is the future of cancer care in Australia?	Title: Impact of climate change on Indigenous health	Title: The endless horizon: Health equity and improving health literacy in rural and remote Australia	Title: Bridging the gap between research and impact: It's everyone's business	Title: ClueGP - Diagnosing Exam Difficulty	Title: Making reflective practice part of your teaching and learning toolkit
12.45 pm	Lunch in the exhibition hall (including poster presentations and Meet the Expert sessions)
1.45 pm	Concurrent sessions
	Title: Making Abortion Care Accessible: Equipping GPs for Comprehensive, Patient-Centred Reproductive Healthcare	Title: Non-invasive genetic screening in pregnancy: non-invasive prenatal testing (NIPT) and fetal rhesus screening (FRS)	Title: The challenges of flourishing after cancer	Title: AI scribes – assistant or adversary? A medicolegal update for busy GP's	Title: Demystifying Medicare Compliance: Practical Insights for GPs	Title: Rapid Fire Research - Innovation	Title: A Step in the Right Direction: A Practical Approach to Foot Conditions	Title: The perfect consultation	Title: Good supervisors don't have to be experts in everything
2.35 pm	Keynote Presentation 2: Prof Michael Kidd AO
3.20 pm	Afternoon tea in the exhibition hall

3.50 pm	Keynote Presentation 3: Dr Michael Wright
4.50 pm	Day 1 close
5.00 pm	Welcome Reception in the exhibition hall

Saturday 15 November 2025 (Conference day 2)

Time (AEST)	Activity
7.00a m	Registration open
7.30 am	Breakfast symposiums, presented by conference partners (limited spaces, booking required) RACGP Research Breakfast (limited spaces, booking required)
8.45 am	Day 2 welcome
9.00 am	Ministerial Address, Queensland Minister for Health
9.10 am	Keynote Presentation 4: Prof James Ward
9.55 am	Morning tea in the exhibition hall
10.30 am	Concurrent sessions
	Title: RACGP 10th Edition Red Book: What's New	Title: Concerned about a colleague? How to have a difficult conversation with kindness.	Title: Frailty Assessment and Management in Community-Dwel ling Older Adults: A Practical Workshop	Title: Responding to young people presenting with self-harming behaviours and suicide risk	Title: Insights on patient perspectives on outcomes and experiences of Australian General Practice	Title: Rapid fire Research – Older persons health	Title: Integrating multidisciplinary teams into general practice	Title: Creating Psychologically Safe Training: A 5Cs Approach to Registrar Wellbeing	Title: Central Queensland Regional Medical Pathways: A Community- Centred Growth Strategy

11.20 am	Concurrent sessions
	Title: RACGP 10th Edition Red Book: What's New (continued)	Title: Addressing the risk of Meningococcal Disease in Adolescents and Young Adults'	Title: Cognitive Assessment: Choosing the right tool for the job.	Title: Getting Started in ADHD Management	Title: The Future Decade: Mentorship, Leadership, and the Evolution of General Practice (part 1)	Title: Rapid fire Research – Women's health	Title: Effective cancer screening conversations with your patients	Title: Creating Psychologically Safe Training: A 5Cs Approach to Registrar Wellbeing (continued)	Title: Reflective practice in GP Training: using available tools to facilitate registrars' reflection
12.15 pm	Lunch in the exhibition hall (including poster presentations and Meet the Expert sessions)
1.15 pm	Concurrent sessions
	Title: Navigating PSR reviews: Common traps and how to avoid them	Title: Private Interests, Public Good? Private Health Insurers in the Future of Primary Care	Title: Perimenopause and Menopause in General Practice: Clinical Management and Culturally Responsive Care	Title: Lessons from the Deep End - Ideas from a Churchill Fellowship	Title: The Future Decade: Mentorship, Leadership, and the Evolution of General Practice (part 2)	Title: Rapid fire Research – Mental health	Title: Tackling the GP Shortfall – A Call to action for Sustainable Primary Care	Title: The Games we play: innovations in medical education	Title: Ctrl + Alt + Teach: Rebooting medical education with agile thinking
2.05 pm	Concurrent sessions
	Title: Breathing new life into COPD care	Title: To be advised	Title: Demystifying lower urinary tract symptoms: a new guideline to empower GPs	Title: Rapid fire Broader health	Title: Rapid fire General / Multi-system	Title: Rapid fire Research – Workforce sustainability	Title: Improving the experience of IMG GPs in Australia	Title: Supporting GP registrars in managing complexity	Title: How can medical educators role model vulnerability whilst maintaining credibility
2.50 pm	Afternoon tea in the exhibition hall

3.30 pm	Keynote Presentation 5: Lorraine Finlay
4.15 pm	Day 2 close
6.00 pm	RACGP Awards (by invitation only)
7.00 pm	RACGP conference dinner and RACGP Awards (all welcome, booking required)

Sunday 16 November 2025 (Conference day 3)

Time (AEST)	Activity
7.30 am	Breakfast symposiums, presented by conference partners (limited spaces, booking required)
8.45 am	Day 3 welcome
9.00 am	Keynote Presentation 6: Dr Justin Coleman
9.45 am	Morning tea in the exhibition hall
10.15 am	Concurrent sessions
	Title: Healthcare's net zero transition – where are we and where we going?	Title: The RACGP Registrar Wellbeing Project – the Why, What and How?	Title: Rapid fire Innovation, leadership and research	Title: Rapid fire Preventative care	Title: Rapid fire Workforce sustainability	Title: Rapid fire Research – General	Title: Antidepressant medication review and deprescribing in general practice	Title: "What's in the box?" The general practice survival kit	Title: A funny thing happened - using amusing events to plan teaching sessions.
11.05 am	Keynote 7: Panel
11.50 am	Conference closing
12.20 pm	Lunch in the exhibition hall (including Australian General Practice Research Foundation Awards)
1.30 pm	Conference concludes
4.00 pm	RACGP Fellowship Ceremony (including the William Arnold Conolly Oration) – by invitation only								