

Partnering with the RACGP is a unique opportunity to tap into the unparalleled trust and expertise of Australia's general practice community. We are the professional home for more than 90% of the profession, connecting with GPs at every stage of their career – from students in their first years of learning through to respected senior leaders.

When looking for medical advice, the GP is usually a patient's first step. It's the unique, long-term relationship that makes general practice one of the most trusted professions in our community. And, as the voice for Australia's GPs, it's what makes a partnership with the RACGP so influential.

We seek partnerships that bring innovation, drive and investment to help solve some of the major issues facing general practice. We want to build long-term partnerships that can make a meaningful impact within the profession and the Australian community.

You're invited to express interest in building a partnership with the RACGP. This submission looks to align your organisation with the RACGP and showcase how your organisation can:

- improve the lives of GPs personally and professionally
- help solve some of the biggest issues facing general practice
- improve patient-centred care across the country
- maintain continuity of care for Australian patients
- put its values into practice.
