

How much will Board members be paid for FY 2022–23?

The total remuneration figure of $1,185,000 includes $988,188.84 for 14 Directors and a contingency of $196,811.16 (20%). This contingency covers new activity such as the co-opting of a Director for the new RACGP Northern Territory faculty.

Board remuneration will not increase beyond CPI of 2.5%. Approval of the resolution at the EGM simply means the RACGP is authorised to pay the Board beyond 30 June 2022.

*The Board Chair, President, Vice-president, FARM Chair and PCNR Chair have extra responsibilities and time commitments, so these roles receive additional remuneration.

The CiC encompasses an ex officio role as an RACGP Board member and also provides significant services in addition to the role of Director. Fees paid to the CiC for the Executive Director role are related-party transactions and are not included in the total Board remuneration.
